

An Invitation to a presentation by Carole Douglas on the embroidery traditions of Kutch in Northwestern India

'In Her Own Voice – stitch as tradition, identity and livelihood'

Carole Douglas is an artist, writer, educator and intrepid traveller. She has been travelling to Kutch, Gujarat, India for 25 years where she has worked on several curatorial, educational and cultural projects with local artisans.

Music provided by Malathi Nagarajan, a Pearl Beach resident

Tuesday 22 June 2021
2pm – 4pm PEARL BEACH MEMORIAL HALL
9 Diamond Road

Bookings essential – 4344 2319
Cost: $15 includes afternoon tea

A donation to Carole's Indian Charity would be appreciated
COVID QR Check will apply

www.pearlbeachprogress.org.au

Proudly presented by the Pearl Beach Progress Association

